Carmen Salvatore, member of the county school board, was in Belle Glade for several days this week where he had a crew of workmen with trucks hauling mud to fill in the school yard. The board has ordered a truck and the City of Belle Glade furnished two trucks to take the mud. The work is being expedited by the workmen. It is necessary to put the school in first class condition.

Ownership of The Lake Worth Herald changed hands on Monday of this week. Mrs. W. C. Goss (Lucille Smith) sold out lock stock and barrel to three of her employees, Mr. J. E. Danton, Mr. J. E. Sentele, and Mr. J. E. Sentele. The new owners have been associated with the Herald for many years and have hundreds of friends throughout the county who will wish success in their new venture.

W. Vennum, Florida Highway Patrolman, was in Belle Glade on Sunday with Mrs. Vennum. He will preach at the church on Sunday night. Mrs. Vennum will deliver the night message. Rev. J. P. Jennings, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to all friends of the church to be present and hear this outstanding couple.

State Road Patrolmen L. H. Harper and W. T. Carls were in Belle Glade on Sunday. They were on duty at the intersection of the highway and the canal. They inspected hundreds of permits. During the hours they were on duty they found four cars without permits. They are now operating cars without permits.

On Wednesday the patrolmen were in Belle Glade where they stopped a car and found it without a permit. They found the driver without a permit. They found the driver without a permit. They found the driver without a permit.

Killed In Mishap
On Ojus Dragline

Blanchard Branch of Canal Point was killed Saturday morning at Ojus on a few miles north of Miami. Branch, who was employed as an oiler on a drag line for the Maule Construction Co., was crushed to death by a wheel of a motor. According to witnesses Branch was cleaning beneath the dragline when the wheel of the motor caught and pulled Branch into the wheel.

Branch had been working for the firm only five weeks when the accident occurred. He was 26 years old and was the son of Mrs. V. J. Branch of Canal Point and the late Frank Branch. He is survived by his wife and one child. Funeral services for Branch were held Wednesday at Dublin, Ga.

School Has Many Interesting Events

The Canal Point Public School has several interesting events coming up during the next two weeks before the Christmas holidays begin on the nineteenth.

The third school assembly, which will be put on by the Fifth grade, will be held next Friday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. in the gymnasium. The assembly will have charge of this assembly. Parents and friends are cordially invited. During the day, December 12, a Christmas play will be shown by the pupils of the school.

The school will put on a Christmas play on Wednesday evening, December 17th, to which the public is invited to attend. This is the first program of this nature the school has been able to put on for some years, due to the lack of facilities. Teachers and pupils of the school are working feverishly to put on a good program.

The school has Christmas pictures will be shown the students of the school during Friday, December 19. These Christmas pictures are in addition to the regular visual education pictures, provided by the dimes brought by the pupils of the school.

The school records show a slight increase in enrollment each month. The school analysis shows that the school has made considerable improvement over last year's. The percentage of perfect attendance has been raised to a marked degree.

Glades Merchants
Expecting Holiday
Business Be Good

Stores Buy Heavily For Christmas Shoppers In
The Glades

The biggest holiday shopping season on record is expected by Glades merchants who are busy making final arrangements for an unprecedented shopping rush during the next few weeks. Early shopping activities combined with the brightest business outlook for the Glades in years indicated a rapid movement of stocks from shelves into the hands of merry holiday buyers.

While it is too early to predict possible sales figures, it seems certain that all previous records will be broken. The sales will be bigger, and heavier and more luxurious sack for Santa Claus to fill.

"There's no question about it," said one prominent Glades merchant, Joseph Kahn of Kahn's

Here it is summer weather again. And after we asked the weatherman to hold the pre-Thanksgiving chill for awhile, too, just for the sake of the color up of oranges and the relief of panting bird dogs and hunters.

No cooperation at all—but it won't do you any good to write your congressman about it; the weathermen are happily under civil service and report the weather as they find it without regard to which way the political wind is blowing.—Tampa Times.

No German soldiers have planted their feet on American soil. But there has been a pending invasion of America. It has taken the form of an invasion of the perfectly good American language. It is evident every day in newspapers and magazines and in public speeches.

There is no more excuse for it than for French names of food on America restaurant menus.—NEA Editorial.

Fred T. Hickerson, Broker

Located In Canal Point Mr. Hickerson Operates a Packing House and Is Known Far and Wide as the Farmers' Friend.—Makes Every Effort to Secure the Highest Prices for Produce Sold On His Platform.—Truckers from East and West Coast Have Learned To Make A Stop At Hickerson's When they Come to the Lake Region

One of the produce concerns in the Lake Region enjoying a wide patronage is the one operated by Fred T. Hickerson. Mr. Hickerson is known far and wide as the farmer's friend and they feel that he expends every effort to secure for them the highest market price on vegetables that he sells for them. During the time that Mr. Hickerson has been operating in dependently he has won the confidence of the growers and buyers alike. They know that a square deal is forthcoming when they do business with the Hickerson platform.

Truckers from the East and West coast of Florida make it a point to stop at Hickerson's packing house whenever they come into the Lake Region. As a rule they do not make any of the items, they want without going any further. If the Hickerson concern doesn't happen to have a complete line of the items, foreign buyer effort will be made to establish contact with some other house that may have the necessary vegetables to make up the load.

It is little courtesies like these that have won the friendship and confidence of those who come to the Lake Region to buy our produce. Mr. Hickerson makes every effort to secure the highest price possible for his farm friends and at the same time he has the happy knack of keeping the buyers happy over the sale. His auction sales command the attention of all the buyers since he has the inimitable faculty of keeping the bidders interested in the sale until the top notch price is reached.

The Hickerson packing plant uses a great number of workmen during the season and handles thousands and thousands of packages of vegetables. Each pack is turned out in as neat a manner as possible since Mr. Hickerson is a stickler for a fancy pack of number one vegetables.

Keese Packing Company

One of the Outstanding Produce Concerns in the Lake Region.—Operated by a Group of Men Who Are Interested in the Uplifting And Betterment of the Community.—Keese Concern Renders An Efficient and Valuable Service to Growers of This Area

The Keese Packing company, headed by P. C. Keese, broker, are two separate and distinct concerns operating under the same roof in Belle Glade. While headed by the same men each concern has its particular duty to perform in the vast agricultural industry of this section.

The Keese Packing company engages in grading, packing and preparing for sale all winter produce entering the house while the sales are handled by P. C. Keese, Broker. Mr. Keese, known to his hundreds of friends as "Jack" came to the Everglades section of Florida in 1928. He has been in the produce business since that time and it was in 1935 that the modern packing house was built in Belle Glade.

The Keese Packing company is made up of a group of men who are first and foremost interested in the advancement of the vegetable industry in this section. Knowing the industry as they do, they know full well that the future of the Lake Region rests upon the success of this agricultural enterprise. Therefore, it is their prime interest to turn out the finest package of No. 1 vegetables and the splendid manner in which they have treated their friends and patrons has won for them the greatest respect of those with whom they do business. Growers, buyers and visitors alike feel at home on the Keese platform.

In this business review it should be pointed out that concerns such as the one above described, have done a great deal in making the Lake Okechobee Farming Region the outstanding vegetable producing section in America today. We extend congratulations to these concerns for their fine contribution and predict for them a continuance of their successful ventures.

Lord Packing Company

A Progressive Organization Playing An Important Part In The Agricultural Development Of The Glades. Provide A market For Vegetables And Secure Top Prices For The Grower

The Lord Packing Company with office and packing house in Belle Glade is one of the firms in our community that is deserving of prominent mention in this review not only because its management has been and is today active in the promotion of progress in this community, but especially because they render a valued and essential service to the grower providing a ready market for his vegetables, and securing for him top prices at all times. Truly this company has marked itself as an important factor in the agricultural development of the Glades.

The Lord Packing Company was built seven years ago, by Mr. W. C. Lord, and is one of the best equipped in our community. Mr. Lord has spent many years in the growing and marketing vegetables and knows the business from A to Z. He is courteous and friendly at all times, willing and anxious to give the grower a square deal.

During the season, employment is provided in the packing house for many people and the conditions under which they work are highly commendable. Annually the Lord Packing Company pays large sums into local and county taxes and in many other ways, helps the progress of the Glades.

A. E. KIRCHMAN, Sinclair Agent

Arnold Kirchman, Local Agent, Furnishes Sinclair Dealers in A Prompt and Satisfactory Manner. Has Been Supplying Them For The Past Eleven Years

Mr. A. E. Kirchman, with office and bulk plant located in Belle Glade, is the local distributor for Sinclair Refining Company and supplies dealers throughout this section with a full line of products including Sinclair H-C gasoline and Opaline and Pennsylvania motor oils, the perfect combination that gives economical motor fuel and long-pulling motor oil.

Sinclair products need little comment here, for thousands upon thousands of motorists look for the familiar "Sinclair" sign that is everywhere known as a mark of quality. Each day Sinclair H-C gasoline wins new friends. If you are not already on the list, drive around to your nearest Sinclair station. FILL UP YOUR TANK, and let it prove to you all that is claimed for it.

Sinclair stations are located everywhere for your convenience and they will give you courteous service, whether you are purchasing a gallon of gasoline or not. For more information, Sinclair stations are noted, throughout the country for their FINE SERVICE.

Do You Remember When These Happenings Took Place

15 YEARS AGO

Here On The Shores of Lake Okechobee?

The Bodies of the Canal Point Community Methodist church sponsored a community Thanksgiving dinner last Thursday. It was the largest and most representative gathering held in Canal Point so many years.

One hundred and fifty varieties of sugar cane are in bloom in the United States Department of Agriculture's cane testing station at Canal Point. B. A. Bourne, pathologist in charge, says the blossoming made by the pathologist and assisted by the flooding of the fields which followed the Septem-ber hurricane. Studies of the cane are being made by the pathologist to get data on which to base the plans for breeding the variety of the process being to obtain and develop new and superior varieties.

The first ear lot shipment of Everglades beans of the 1920-21 season rolled from Canal Point Thursday morning. The car was loaded Wednesday night and went under refrigeration. W. H. Vann made the shipment for growers on Kremer Island. The Moore Haven area sent out four cars.

After nearly a year in West Palm Beach Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Forbes are returning to Canal Point to make their home. He has taken a position with Bryan & Hollaway and will look after the movement of barges hauling rock, a work on the character that he performed on the construction of Conner's highway.

R. C. Brackett is planting an acre of lettuce and has some peppers.

The Everglades may not have had its last flood; it is certain though, that it will never again have such floods as those in the past. Despite the floods the faith of the residents in the quality of the soil and the country never waver.

M. F. George, who was prominent in Glades county affairs for many years and who went to Saratoga about two years ago, has returned to Moore Haven to go into the contracting business.

HOOK'S BETTER FOOD STORE

The Pioneer Grocery Store of The Lake Region. A Friendly Store Now Celebrating Its 14th Year In Business

Hook's Better Food Store needs
 little introduction to the people of the Lake region for it is the oldest grocery store in this section. It was established in 1927 by Mr. D.
 L. Hooks, a friendly and reliable merchant. Mr. Hooks is well known throughout this part of the state and has established an enviable reputation for fair and honest business dealings. He is courteous and accommodating, striving at all times to supply his patrons with the best in groceries, meats, fresh fruits and vegetables at the lowest prices. Since he started in business it has been his policy to be satisfied with a large volume of business. Mr. Hooks invites you to drop into the store at any time and look around. Just make yourself at home.

For the past fourteen years this reliable merchant has been serving his patrons in an admirable manner. Today there are few grocery-men that enjoy greater good will or better business than does he.

In charge of the meat department is Mr. E. P. Shutt. Mr. Shutt is a butcher of wide experience and takes great pride in being able to give helpful suggestions on what to serve. Only the best of native meats and western brand beef

 are sold. A modern meat display counter and refrigeration system enables them to keep their meats
 in the best of condition.

In this review of the leading business places of the Lake region,
 we are pleased to call your attention to Hook's Better Food Store.

Although young in years, Mr.
 Hooks, the owner, is old in experience and one of the most reliable merchants in this section. Since he established his business, he has seen many business places come and go. His record of 14 years of continuous service is your assurance of quality, service, low prices and fair dealing. We compliment him.
